TRAFALGAR (KP Lim) showed no early pace, despite being urged.

YULONG DREAM (KC Low) was obliged to race wide on the turn and finished the race wide.

THAI BAHT (S Hafis) was hanging in in the straight. Jockey S Hafis was shown the video of the incident and was warned that when his horse is shifting in, he should have changed his whip into his left hand and not use it with his right hand.

A post-race veterinary examination of THAI BAHT revealed no obvious abnormality.

Trainer EP Tan was questioned with regards to the improved performance of TURF PRINCESS today. The only explanation that he was able to offer is that TURF PRINCESS was racing in a weaker field, having formerly being a Class-3 horse. His attention was drawn to MRA Rule 117(3) regarding in-and-out running.
